JAKE SCHAEFER MAKES TWO GOOD SPRINTS AND DEFEATS IVES.

Second Series of the Tournament to Be Played in Boston—Letter from Athletes Bound for Greece.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The racing season in the East will be opened two weeks from to-day, and with an intermission of ten days, will be continued until late in the fall. The first meeting is at Washington under the new management, and, judging from the list of entries for the stakes and the people interested, there should be better sport than has ever been seen at the capital. The Blenheim string is already at the track, and Henry of Navarre, Doran, Keenan, Hastings and the lot of two-year-olds seem to be in good condition. Great stakes will go on in short time, and when the racing begins it is probable that the accommodations of the course will be tested. The Washington handicap is the first stake to be run off, and although Henry of Navarre will not start, there should be a good race. Each day thereafter a stake will be contested and the meeting will come to a close on May 2. Morris Park will then be opened, followed by Gravesend, Coney Island, Aqueduct, Brighton Beach, Coney Island again, Gravesend and Morris Park to close the season.

From all the stables there are reports of great trials by two-year-olds, but until they have been tried in a race little knowledge can be gained of this year's crop, as trials count for little when it comes to racing. Almost every trainer has a world-beater, and some, therefore, are likely to be disappointed when their charges come to sport silk. Some of the get of the great race horse Tammany will be seen for the first time and their work will be watched with interest, as he is such a high-class animal, but so was Salvador, and his progeny thus far have not been anything like the standard of their sire. Other stallions will be represented for the first time and the guessing is great this year.

The best racing of the year should come from the three-year-olds, for the cracks of last season are all in good condition and there are several old scores to settle. As has frequently been the case, the richest stake for this class will not have them all. The Realization having a good lot in, though Handspring and Ben Brush are missing, and the Tidal has neither Reginald nor Ben Brush. This will take away some of the interest, although there are plenty of good ones left. According to their records the three-year-olds this year should be Handspring, Ben Brush, Reginald, Handspring, Applegate, Refugee and Hazlet. Handspring is a true Hanover, and as they always improve he should be a good one. His place in the future was not a true one, for he was so cut by Alex at the post that he did not show his speed. Handspring was not right then either, or he would have shown better. Refugee made a fine showing last fall, and is likely to be dangerous, while Hazlet is a good one. Applegate may turn out better than last fall, as he was a great horse in the spring. One Love stood at the head of the fillets last fall, but Cassette has wintered well and the two should about divide the stakes in this class this season. Taken all in all it will be seen to be a good lot and likely to furnish some high class racing.

The handicaps are, as usual, the most spoken of now, and the speculation about the Metropolitan to be run on May 2 is confined to the owners. The Brooklyn and Suburban have a different rank, and the books have been open for some time. In the Brooklyn Henry of Navarre is, of course, the favorite, and even at this early date no bet is made against him. In the Suburban he is quoted even higher, for 25 to 1 is about the best given. Clifford is next in favor, at 5 to 1 and 4 to 1, respectively. These odds are little short of ridiculous, as the possibility of nonstarting is an important factor, and the bookmakers seem to have missed the best of it in every way. Sir Walter, that sterling horse which has got the place many times in big races, is third choice, while Nanki Pooh, Keenan, Counter Tenor and Halma follow, about equal choices. These are at all sorts of odds, being considered practically out of it, although handicaps are uncertain problems, and may go to the outsiders, as they have in the past. On the Eastern tracks the changes in officials have been many, and generally for the good of the racing. The new starter, Flynn, the new starter, is one of the best that ever handled a flag, and with the starting machine to aid him, the new starter has been together at the first attempt. Long delays at the post should be a thing of the past, and the heavy betting will be a thing of the past, as the chance to win. In the judges' stand there will be a change, owing to the retirement of Colonel Simmons, who has been in the stand for many years. Mr. McDevell, John Hoey was an ideal judge, and his death has made a void hard to fill. Mr. McDevell was induced to accept the place he will have the confidence of everybody. The Brighton track will be greatly improved by the new grandstand, which will be open to the sea breezes, and should be more popular than ever before.

Close at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 4.—The local racing season closed to-day. Though the card was a very ordinary one, it furnished better sport than it promised, and the dead heat and the subsequent run-off was one of the best features of the meeting. Summaries:
